Description:

Review

"A fun and glorious read. A must for your little ones."

~ Susan B. Neuman, ED.D, Professor of Educational Studies, University of Michigan. Previously served as the U.S. Assistant Secretary of Elementary and Secondary Education.

"This book is an excellent way to introduce children to the benefits of good citizenship. The illustrations are bright and cheerful and the text is easy to understand"

~ Jeffrey D. Haller, M.D., FACP, FAAP, Father of 6

"Oh No! Ah Yes! provides a positive learning experience that a child can grasp! The illustrations popped before the children's eyes. They were able to see the true way of how to do things. We all love the book."

~ The Rieder Family

"Oh No! Ah Yes! is a delightfully written book that focuses on choices children often have to make during the course of the day.

~ Mary Jo Keller, Dept. of Child and Family Services, S.C.C.

"Oh no, the book has ended! Ah yes, we can read it again! Oh No! Ah Yes! introduces young children to dilemmas they face in their everyday lives."

~ Diane Flynn-Hahn, Professor/Director, Child and Family Services Department, S.C.C.

From the Author Oh No! Ah Yes! helps children learn the importance of personal hygiene, the benefits and responsibilities of good citizenship, respecting themselves and others, self direction to gain confidence in good decision-making, thinking through the consequences of your decisions and demonstrates positive values.
